LIVINCART FURNITURE PROJECT HANDOVER AGREEMENT

Furniture Project Handover Agreement between LivinCart and Services Private Limited and the Client.

1. Parties

This Interior Project Handover Agreement ("Agreement") is entered into between LivinCart and Services Private Limited (hereinafter referred to as the "Company"), and the Client identified in the approved Works Contract, Quotation, or Purchase Order (hereinafter referred to as the "Client").

The Parties acknowledge and agree that the Company has substantially completed the interior works, supplied and installed the Products and Services forming part of the approved scope of work, and is formally handing over the completed Project to the Client in accordance with the terms of the Works Contract, approved Project Documents, and this Agreement. The Client agrees to accept possession of the completed Project, subject to any pending rectification items specifically recorded in this Agreement.

This Agreement shall serve as conclusive evidence of the formal handover of the completed Project and shall govern the respective rights and obligations of the Parties arising after the date of handover.

2. Project Details

Project ID: _____
Customer: _____
Address: _____
Contract Value: _____
Handover Date: _____

3. Scope of Furniture Handover

The Company confirms that the approved scope of supply, delivery, installation, and finishing of the furniture Products has been substantially completed in accordance with the approved Quotation, Purchase Order, Works Contract, approved drawings (where applicable), specifications, and any approved Change Orders.

The handover includes, as applicable, sofas, beds, wardrobes, dining tables, chairs, TV units, coffee tables, office furniture, modular furniture, storage units, customized furniture, hardware, accessories, and all other Products expressly included in the approved Project Documents.

The Client acknowledges that the handover is limited to the Products and Services specifically included in the approved quotation and related Project Documents. Any additional items, modifications, or services not approved in writing shall be deemed excluded from the Company's obligations.

The Parties further acknowledge that minor variations in colour, texture, grain, fabric pattern, finish, dimensions, or alignment that are consistent with accepted industry standards and do not affect the functionality, structural integrity, or intended use of the Products shall not constitute defects. Any agreed pending minor rectification items shall be recorded separately and completed within the mutually agreed timeline.

4. Inspection, Testing & Acceptance

The Client acknowledges that, prior to the execution of this Agreement, a joint inspection of the supplied and installed furniture Products has been conducted by the Company and the Client. The inspection includes verification of the quantity, dimensions, finish, colour, material, workmanship, stability, alignment, functionality, hardware fittings, drawers, shutters, hinges, channels, locks, handles, upholstery, fabric, polish, laminate, veneer, and all other accessories included in the approved scope of supply.

The Client confirms that the furniture Products have been inspected and found satisfactory, except for any observations or minor punch-list items specifically recorded in writing. Such punch-list items shall not constitute grounds for rejection of the handover and shall be rectified by the Company within the mutually agreed timeline.

The Client further acknowledges that minor variations in colour, grain pattern, texture, fabric, finish, or dimensions that are inherent to natural or manufactured materials and are within accepted industry standards shall not be considered manufacturing defects. Upon execution of this Agreement, the Client accepts the completed furniture Products as being substantially in accordance with the approved Quotation, specifications, and Project Documents.

5. Handover of Furniture

Upon execution of this Agreement, the Company hereby hands over peaceful possession of the completed furniture Products to the Client. The Client acknowledges receipt of all furniture items supplied and installed under the approved Quotation, Purchase Order, or Works Contract, together with the applicable warranty documents, invoices, product care and maintenance guidelines, user manuals (where applicable), and other relevant project documents.

The Client confirms that the furniture Products have been delivered and installed in accordance with the approved specifications and accepts possession of the same, subject to any punch-list or minor rectification items specifically recorded in writing. From the date of handover, the Client shall assume responsibility for the care, maintenance, and safe use of the furniture Products, subject to the terms of the applicable warranty.

6. Warranty

The warranty for the Products and Services covered under the Project shall commence from the date of execution of this Handover Agreement, unless otherwise specified in the applicable Warranty Certificate. The warranty shall be governed by the terms of the Works Contract, Warranty Policy, and the manufacturer's warranty, where applicable.

The warranty covers manufacturing defects and workmanship deficiencies arising under normal use and maintenance, subject to the terms, conditions, exclusions, and limitations specified in the Warranty Policy. The warranty shall not apply to normal wear and tear, misuse, negligence, accidental damage, unauthorized modifications or repairs, improper maintenance, water seepage, electrical faults, pest infestation, force majeure events, or any damage caused by factors beyond the Company's reasonable control.

7. Transfer of Possession & Ownership

Upon execution of this Agreement, the Company shall be deemed to have delivered, and the Client shall be deemed to have accepted, peaceful possession of all furniture Products supplied and installed under the approved Quotation, Purchase Order, or Works Contract.

From the date of handover, the risk of loss, damage, theft, misuse, deterioration, or destruction of the furniture Products shall pass to the Client, who shall thereafter be solely responsible for their care, maintenance, operation, and safekeeping. The Company shall not be liable for any damage or loss occurring after handover, except to the extent covered under the applicable warranty.

Notwithstanding the transfer of possession and risk, legal ownership and title to the furniture Products shall remain vested in the Company until the Client has paid in full all amounts due under the Works Contract, including the contract value, applicable taxes, approved variations, and any other outstanding dues. Upon receipt of full and final payment, ownership of the furniture Products shall automatically transfer to the Client without requiring any further act or documentation by either Party.

8. Customer Responsibilities

Upon handover, the Client shall be responsible for the proper use, care, operation, and maintenance of all Products and completed works in accordance with the Company's Product Care Guide, Warranty Policy, and any maintenance instructions provided. The Client shall take reasonable precautions to protect the Products from misuse, negligence, accidental damage, water seepage, moisture, pest infestation, unauthorized alterations, or any other condition that may adversely affect their performance or durability.

The Client shall promptly notify the Company in writing of any defect or issue covered under the applicable warranty and shall provide the Company with reasonable access to inspect and rectify such defects. Failure to maintain the Products in accordance with the prescribed care instructions or any unauthorized repair, modification, or relocation of the Products may result in the warranty being limited or void to the extent permitted under the applicable warranty terms.

9. Company Responsibilities

The Company shall, subject to the terms of the Works Contract and Warranty Policy, attend to valid warranty claims and complete any agreed punch-list or rectification items within a reasonable timeframe, subject to site access and material availability.

The Company shall use reasonable efforts to repair or replace defective Products or rectify workmanship defects covered under the applicable warranty. The Company shall not be liable for defects or damage arising from normal wear and tear, misuse, negligence, unauthorized modifications, improper maintenance, or any cause beyond its reasonable control. The Client shall provide reasonable access to the Project premises to enable inspection and completion of the required rectification works.

10. Governing Law and Jurisdiction

This Agreement shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of India. Any dispute, claim, or difference arising out of or relating to this Agreement, its interpretation, performance, breach, or termination shall, in the first instance, be resolved amicably through mutual discussions between the Parties.

If the Parties are unable to resolve the dispute amicably within a reasonable period, such dispute shall be subject to the exclusive jurisdiction of the competent courts at Visakhapatnam, Andhra Pradesh, without prejudice to any dispute resolution mechanism provided under the Works Contract or applicable law.

Customer Declaration

I hereby acknowledge that I have jointly inspected the completed Project and confirm that the Products and Services have been handed over to my satisfaction, subject to any observations or pending rectification items specifically recorded in this Agreement. I further acknowledge receipt of possession of the completed interior works, warranty documents, user manuals, keys (where applicable), invoices, and other relevant project documents.

I confirm that I have been informed of the applicable warranty terms, product care and maintenance guidelines, and my responsibilities after handover. I agree to comply with the terms of the Works Contract, Warranty Policy, and this Handover Agreement, and acknowledge that the Project has been formally handed over to me on the date of execution of this Agreement.
